DocuSign is Secure and Legally Binding

- USE OUR EDF NORTH AMERICA DocuSign for transaction signatures.
- When transactions contain sensitive information such as pricing details, proprietary business info, intellectual property and more, we can't afford to take risks.

DocuSign follows the guidelines and standards of:

- UETA (Uniform Electronic Transactions Act) and national laws worldwide
- ISO/IEC 27001 – highest level of global information security assurance available today
- PCI DSS – PCI data security standard and CSA STAR Program – Cloud Security Alliance Security Trust Assurance and Risk Program

DocuSign

Click here to access DocuSign support site

DocuSign adheres to these requirements:

- Allow signer to confirm intent to sign electronically
- Link all signature to signers
- Verify signer identities with a number of authentication systems
- Allow secure access to documents
- Record all signature activities, provide Certificate of Completion, provide audit trail